MANY WERE WED THERE

Fifty-Sixth Anniversary of "Little Church Around the Corner" Is Celebrated.

RECORD OF 15,000 WEDDINGS

Pastor Declares That He Turns Away an Average of 50 Couples a Month Who Would Marry.

New York, Oct. 3.—With an estimated record of nearly 15,000 marriages, the fifty-sixth anniversary of the Church of the Transfiguration, known far and wide as "The Little Church Around the Corner," has been celebrated. Special services were held and a large congregation was in attendance, including many theatrical persons, among whom the church is particularly popular. Speaking of the many marriages celebrated in the church, the rector, Dr. Houghton, declared that he turns away many more couples than he marries; in fact, those whom he refuses averages 50 couples a month, including divorced persons and young persons who are unable to swear that their parents' consent has been obtained.

WHEN SUCCESS IS A FAILURE.

How Do Your Attainments Measure Up By This Standard?

When you do not overtop your vocation; when you are not greater as a man than as a lawyer, a merchant, a physician, or a scientist.

When you are not a cleaner, finer, larger man on account of your life-work.

When you have lost on your way up to your fortune your self-respect, your courage, your self-control, or any other quality of manhood.

When it has made conscience an accuser, and shut the sunlight out of your life.

When the attainment of your ambition has blighted the aspirations and crushed the hopes of others.

When your highest brain-cells have been crowded out of business by greed.

When all sympathy has been crushed out of your nature by your selfish devotion to your vocation.

When you plead that you never had time to cultivate your friendships, politeness, or good manners.

When you have lived a double life and practised double-dealing.

When it brings you no message of culture, education or travel, or of opportunities to help others.

When it dwarfs, cramps or interferes with another's rights; when it blinds you to the interests of the man at the other end of the bargain.

When there is a dishonest or a deceitful dollar in your possession; when your fortune spells the ruin of widows and orphans, or the crushing of the opportunities of others.

When the hunger for more money, more land, more houses and bonds has grown to be your dominant passion.

When it has dwarfed you mentally and morally, and robbed you of the spontaneity and enthusiasm of youth.

When it has made you a physical wreck, a victim of "nerves" and moods.

When it has lowered your standards and made you a traitor to all your highest and noblest impulses.

When it has hardened you to the needs and sufferings of others, and made you a scorner of the poor and unfortunate.

When you rob those who work for you of what is justly their due, and then pose as a philanthropist by contributing a fraction of your unjust gains to some charity or to the endowment of some public institution.

When the world is not better and the richer for your life; when you have hoarded every dollar you have made.

Cuticura Treatment is local and constitutional—complete and perfect, pure, sweet and wholesome. Bathe the affected surfaces with Cuticura Soap and hot water to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, dry without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and lastly take Cuticura Resolvent Pills to cool and cleanse the blood, and put every function in a state of healthy activity. More great cures of simple, scrofulous and hereditary humours are daily made by Cuticura remedies than by all other blood and skin remedies combined, a single set being often sufficient to cure the most distressing cases when all else fails.

and have refused to help your less fortunate fellowmen.

When you have used others as stepping-stones to fortune, and ignored their existence when your selfish ends were attained.

When in your climb to power you have trampled on duty, friendship, love, honor, patriotism, and all the most sacred feelings of humanity.

When your example has dragged others down; when your injustice and tyranny have driven men and women to desperation and destroyed their faith in God and man.

When your absorption in your work has made you a practical stranger to your family.

When your children do not look upon you as their best friend next to their mother.

When the nervous irritability engendered by constant work, without any relaxation, has made you a brute in your home and a nuisance to those who work for you.

When your greed for money has darkened and cramped your wife's life, and deprived her of needed rest and recreation, or amusement of any kind.

When your narrow spirit makes you cry out, "What was good enough for me is good enough for my children," and you refuse to give them the education that they crave, and which you can amply afford.

When you have met your children's caresses with repulses, and have denied them the help of your comradeship and loving encouragement and guidance during their formative years.

When the dissolute lives of your sons cry out against you as the one who, either by direct example or by complete neglect of them, has pointed their downward path.

When you are gloomy and pessimistic; when you spread discouragement and despair wherever you go; when you can see no good in any one, no success in any achievement but in piling up dollars, then, no matter how great your apparent success, you are a colossal failure.—Orison Swett Marden, in October Success.
